Wayne Dalton Brings Curb Appeal to Main Street America

Wayne Dalton Garage Doors Welcome Visitors to Year-Round Home Building and Remodeling Theme Park

LEWISVILLE, TX (Feb. 1, 2013) – Homebuyers and remodelers looking for home décor and curb appeal ideas have a new way to shop – a 12-home residential theme park that features the home building industry's latest products, including Wayne Dalton garage doors.

Wayne Dalton, one of the garage door industry's most well-known brands, is a featured participant and sponsor of Main Street America, the nation's only year-round showcase of various home styles. Located in Houston, Texas, Main Street America is part showroom, part home parade and part high-tech shopping experience, all rolled into one.

"As one of the nation's most innovative garage door companies, it only makes sense for Wayne Dalton to participate in the nation's most innovative residential home parade," said Joe Dachowicz, Wayne Dalton's vice president of marketing. "Main Street America allows us to show that, whether it's a coastal beach house, contemporary townhome or anything in between, homeowners can find a garage door design, color, material and accessory combination from Wayne Dalton that is a perfect complement to their client's home."

Designed to inspire, inform and empower homeowners to build or remodel their home, Main Street America features 12 home designs commonly found throughout the U.S. Each home features installed building products designed for beauty, functionality and efficiency, so that homeowners have the benefit of a hands-on experience.

"When visitors walk through Main Street America, they will see a beautiful display of Wayne Dalton garage doors in a variety of styles and price points," said Dachowicz. "We hope it will inspire them to visit their local Wayne Dalton dealer to talk about ways to improve their own home's curb appeal."

Main Street America has been open to the public since November, 2012 and will host its official Grand Opening on Feb. 9, 2013.
