Wayne Dalton Xtreme Door Makeover Photo Contest Awards Trip to Baseball's Biggest Game

Property Brothers Jonathan and Drew Scott Announce This Year's MVPs

LEWISVILLE, Texas (Sept. 26, 2014) – With an eye on curb appeal, one lucky Wayne Dalton dealer turned a Wayne Dalton garage door installation into tickets to this year's biggest game in baseball.

Mike Toyooka, of West Coast Overhead Door in Fillmore, California, had the winning entry in Wayne Dalton's 2014 Xtreme Door Makeover Photo Contest. Now in its third year, the contest included celebrity judges Jonathan and Drew Scott from HGTV's Property Brothers.

Known for their expertise in real estate and home renovation, the Scott brothers chose as the grand prize winner Toyooka's before-and-after photo entry, which demonstrated how a new Model 8300 with walnut wood grain finish and arched Stockton windows can make a dramatic improvement to a home's overall look and feel.

As this year's winner, Toyooka won the grand prize of two tickets to game four of baseball's Fall Classic, plus hotel and air-travel accommodations along with a travel voucher for expenses.

A total of 20 finalists were chosen based on votes made at the Xtreme Door Makeover website. From those 20 entries, the Scott brothers chose projects from Chris Schwerdt, of Midway Sales & Distributing in Topeka, Kansas, and Tia Codispoti of Action Door in Stow, Ohio, as the second and third place winners. Schwerdt and Codispoti were chosen for the excellent job they did in enhancing the look of two homes by successfully matching new Wayne Dalton garage doors with the homes' architecture.

"I want to thank all of our Wayne Dalton dealers who entered for making this year's Xtreme Door Makeover contest a home run," said Kevin Jones, director of brand management, Wayne Dalton. "The Property Brothers, Jonathan and Drew Scott, had some tough calls to make. Congratulations Mike, Chris and Tia for demonstrating how a garage door remodel with Wayne Dalton garage doors can take a home's curb appeal to the next level. You really hit it out of the park!"
